

Ruth M (Robinson) Luh

December 2, 2015

Luh, Ruth M. (Robinson) age 93 of Gem Lake, passed away December 2nd, 2015. Preceded in death by husband Edwin. Survived by daughters Cheryl (Jim) Preisler of New Prague, MN, Melanie (Paul) Wood of Seattle, WA, and Karen Luh of Lexington, KY; granddaughters Heather, Pam, Ashley, Kelsey, and Alexandra. Born and raised in Allen Township, Union County, Ohio, Ruth started working right out of high school. She married Edwin in 1944 and spent the early years of marriage working as he pursued his medical degree. She was an active Republican and member of the League of Women Voters. An avid gardener, Ruth was also a member of the MN Horticulture Society and Ramsey County Garden Club where she served as president for one term. She loved volunteering at the State Fair and Home and Garden horticulture booths, and was a greeter at the Como Conservatory until the age of 90. She was also a skilled seamstress and quilter, and enthusiastic reader - favorites being mystery stories and Irish history. Molded by the Great Depression, Ruth was independent and self-reliant. She was outgoing, loved meeting new people, entertaining and traveling, including overseas trips to England and Ireland visiting gardens and castles. She deeply loved and was proud of her family and will be remembered. Interment at Ft. Snelling National Cemetery. Memorials preferred to the Minnesota Horticultural Society or Como Friends. Visitation from 4-8 pm Tuesday Dec. 8th. Funeral service will be held 11 am Wednesday Dec. 9th with a visitation 1 hour prior to service. “ Sweet Ruth, I already miss you so much. We had so many wonderful chats over dinner and supper, and shared many stories. We had so much fun bringing our scarecrow, Goober, to life. We will think of you when he is by the front door next Fall. You were a very special person and we will always treasure the memories. Enjoy your new journey.
