“ Very sorry to hear of Ruth's passing. I remember, particularly, the wonderful summer outings we had on Big Cedar Lake, where she grew up as a child. She and Regis were both the definition of kind and affable - even to the younger generation. I last saw her at my father's funeral a little over a year ago, when she took the time and effort to come a long way to represent her side of the family. We should all be so lucky as to have her kind in our midst. God love you, Ruth!

“ Uncle Regis & Aunt Ruth were my godparents [our family often referred to them interchangeably, i.e., Uncle Ruth and Aunt Regis].

Until I turned 18, every birthday without fail, I received one more gift because I had godparents who generously remembered. My siblings envied me.

My parents always made me write a thank-you note, a chore at the time, but a habit I am grateful to retain to this day whenever anyone is as thoughtful and kind to me as my "Uncle Ruth & Aunt Regis."

They were both Good People. I am grateful to have had them as my godparents.
