“ Well tomorrow is your bday my love.. Can you believe 28.. I cant believe its been almost 6 years since we lost the light of our lives. I know we all think about you every day. My life now is great and owe it to you for guiding me to where i am and showing me its ok to love again. Its been a rocky road with lots of ups and downs but ive had the best support of so much family and am so thankful for that. im thankful that your family is now my family and will be for the rest of my life. I know in a few months things are gonna get bumpy again so will you please look over us all and make sure the transition goes smooth. I still love you so much and there is still a place in my heart that will only be yours. Hope your having a great party up there tomorrow and you and Buddah are taking lots of jag shots to celebrate. I love you always and HAPPY BDAY

“ I always hate this time of year because halloween is when we got together. It was happiest time of my life. I still miss you so much and think about you all the time.. its not fair. I still wonder how it would be if you were still here. Can you believe our son is going to be 5 in a few weeks? Wow does he know how to throw a temper tantrum, but he also knows how to make ya smile when your feeling down. He must get that from you. We left you a voicemail the other day and he asked how come you dont answer when we call. It makes it hard because he doesnt fully understand. and it hurts cuz he shouldnt have to. Although things are soo much different these days my heart still aches for you and i hope your up there looking over us all and guiding us through all these changes. I love you I love you I love you...

“ Hey Cuz!! I still can't believe its been over 5 years since your passing and almost 10 years since the last time I saw you. It feels like it was just yesterday that you were here in NZ kicking backing in our garage with Paki, Nettal, Lele and Suli having our little bonding sessions over couple of cans (i.e. couple of boxes), or when we would drive to Pt Chev beach and soak up the summer sun while all the olds are prepping for Foga'a's wedding. It's definitely something that I would always miss. Nettal and I always talk about the old days. Do you remember when we were really young and we just got back from dinner this one night and our parents starting playing some music that we danced to in our PJs in the early hours of the morning.....LOL! Those are one of the most fondest moments in my life and know that I will always cherish them. Anyways I just wanted to drop by and write something because there isn't a day that goes by where I don't miss or think about you. It's funny because everytime I hear Jagged Edge 'Let's Get Married' I have a little laugh to myself and think of you. You always used to sing that song lol! Thinking about the good old days always helps but never relieves the sadness and the fact that you are not with us. Until we meet again Miss you & Love you always, Iva

“ Today marks 5 years that you have been gone only from this earth because you will never be gone in our hearts. I think about you more than you could ever imagine and Ryan asks alot if daddy can come down from the sky. its heart breaking. Although my life has changed so much in these past 5 years i have not gone a day without thinking of you. I have your pics up in my car so no matter where i am i know your watching down on my. Its so crazy seeing how much Ryry acts just like you even though he never got to meet you. His little grins his humor his thoughtfulness (most of the time) He is defn a mommys boy just like you were. Your parents have been the most amazing grandparents and Ryan just loves them to death. I hope your up there watching over everyone like youve always done. I love you now and always will. You hold a special place in my heart Ryan Moe and our son will never forget what an amazing man his daddy was and how amazing of a daddy he would have been. I love you

It still hurts everyday but that will be forever i know you have been watching over all of us and helping us through the hard times so thank you. thank you for guiding me to where i am today. I hope ur smiling down on us. You would be so proud of Ryan he is the smartest little boy ever. Has a temper for sure but he will out grow it for sure. His smile reminds me of yours it just melts my heart every time i see it. He sure knows how to light up a room and make everyone smile and laugh just like you did. Well know today is the hardest day of every year for me i died a little inside the day you left. There will always be a part of my heart that will only belong to you Ryan Moe. I always wonder what could have been what would have been. I love you always Ryan Moe keep shining down from up there. And watch over us all down here. I love You XOXOXO

Jk The holidays are still so hard and lonely with out and i know its still so hard on mom n dad but as long as were together it helps. You should hear our son talk man he dont stop talking and he is so smart and so polite just like his daddy now if he would just sleep better. He is turning out to be an AMAZING lil guy just as you. Your mom watches videos of when you were little and says you guys act the same. She is trying to put together a tape so when lil Ry gets older he can watch and see what a great person you were. well for now i have to get to work but will be thinking of you as always. “ Hey Ryan thought I would stop in and say hi. Me and the girls went to Ryan's 1st Birthday party they had so much fun, he is getting so big. Kristi and your family have done a great job but you would have been a great dad. I had a good time too. It was nice to catch up with everyone. We all miss you. When ever I start to miss you I just close my eyes and imagine your arms around me. Hugs are the greatest feeling in the world. They make you feel so protected, They can make all the worries in the world go away. So if you're ever feeling alone just close your eyes and think of getting a hug, it helps. Well gotta go for now I'll talk with you later. With Love, “ Ryan, I know we had lost touch, but I wanted to let you know that you have always still been on my mind. When I first moved, you were one of my supports that reminded me that I could have fun and build a new life in a new city. You also set me straight the time I was making some tough decisions (you know what I'm talking about). I'm so sorry for what happened to you and I wish you could be a part of all the special things I am going through in my own life. I am getting married soon, and my daughter Lilah is almost 14 months old. I wish you could be here to experience these wonderful new chapters in my life. You will always be in my thought and prayers. I am thankful for all the fun and crazy times we had together, especially driving to Wisconsin in the middle of the night. Your wonderful friendship and sense of humor will always hold a special place in my heart. P.S. Sorry for getting the ramen noodles all over in your truck. :) To Ryans Friends and Family: May you be comforted by God on this difficult anniversary. I hope you feel pleased to have known such a special person in such a close way.

“ To The Friends and Family of Ryan Lee Moe: I couldn't believe it and year ago, and I can't believe it today. Almost one year since your name was called upon. I'll never find the right words to show how sorry I feel for Ryan's family. All I can do is send you my condolences and hope you're all doing well. I'll never forget your stories in 8th grade. You know what I'm talking about.... I'll miss all those times at the beach man... I hope you're doing well up there and I'll see you when the time comes. Keep smilin' bro.... And from there on it was like we were together all the time. Ryan i miss you so much there is not a day that goes by that your not on my mind. “ To my dearest family, some things I'd like to say... but first of all, to let you know, that I arrived okay.
I'm writing this from heaven. Here I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness; here is just eternal love.

*Please do not be unhappy just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
That day I had to leave you when my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me and He said, "I welcome you."*

It's good to have you back again; you were missed while you were gone.

*As for your dearest family, they'll be here later on.
I need you here badly; you're part of my plan.
There's so much that we have to do, to help our mortal man."*

*God gave me a list of things, that he wished for me to do.
And foremost on the list, was to watch and care for you.
And when you lie in bed at night, the day's chores put to flight.
God and I are closest to you....in the middle of the night.*

*When you think of my life on earth, and all those loving years because you are only human, they are bound to bring you tears.
But do not be afraid to cry; it does relieve the pain.
Remember there would be no flowers, unless there was some rain.*

*I wish that I could tell you all that God has planned.
But if I were to tell you, you wouldn't understand.
But one thing is for certain, though my life on earth is o'er.
I'm closer to you now, than I ever was before.*

*There are many rocky roads ahead of you and many hills to climb;
but together we can do it by taking one day at a time.
It was always my philosophy and I'd like it for you too...
that as you give unto the world, the world will give to you.*

*If you can help somebody who's in sorrow and pain, then you can say to God at night....."My day was not in vain."
And now I am contented....that my life has been worthwhile, knowing as I passed along the way, I made somebody smile.*

*So if you meet somebody who is sad and feeling low,
just lend a hand to pick him up, as on your way you go.
When you're walking down the street, and you've got me on your mind;
I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind.*

And when it's time for you to go.... from that body to be free, remember you're not going.....you're coming here to me.

I keep picturing you there and how you would look just laughing and imagine all the stuff you would have been saying to make everyone laugh. And the conversation was well lets just saying intresting me n mom just laughed. I know you were there helping everyone have a good time. “ To Ryans family:

There is nothing that can be said that will change the hands of time. What you should know is that Ryan adored every single one of you because you are his family. He would always put you first because he loved you so much. I have had the pleasure of meeting all of you and you know that I will always be here. I love Ryan very much, and with that I consider you my family! We have to celebrate the memories that Ryan has given us, because we know that is what he would want.

To Rick and Nessa:

You both know how much I love Ryan. You have seen us through the thick and thin. Ryan considered you both his heros and he strived to make you happy. Everything Ryan did he wanted your acceptance. He looked up to you both, and loved you more than words can say. Because of that, you both have always been close to my heart. I have never met a family more loving and accepting as yours. I consider you both as my mom and dad. I will always be here, for anything.

“ To Ryan, my best friend, my love;
I'm sorry it took so long to write you, but I know you hear me talk to you everyday. There is just not enough space here to tell you everything I have always wanted to tell you. I will never understand why you had to go now, there was so much you wanted to do, all the dreams you wanted to accomplish. There were many things that I wanted to experience with you, but it was your time to go and only you know why. It tears my heart out to know that I will never be able to hear your voice again or feel the the touch of your skin. I'm still crazy about you and you know that! The tears have not stopped falling and the memories of you and I show up everytime I wake up. You were a great boyfriend, and the best friend everyone asks for. Without you here Ryan, time has stopped and the future is bleak. I always said you were the man of my dreams, but I never thought that this would become a literal truth. Because of you I have learned so much about life and myself, and for that I am so grateful. Every breath I take I appreciate, and I accept the challenges of the day. You are my angel and what ever you may need please call on me, you know I will be there like always.
Meet me at the gates my love, because I will be running straight for you!
Ryan you will always have my heart and no one can take that away.
I love you Ryan

“Hi Brother I know I signed your guest book, but I just want to tell you whats been going on, well we were just there this weekend with Mom and Dad, and we had a blast, so did Mom, she had so much fun we went swimming in the pool that she bought for Taimane, like aroud 4am, and we were just talking about everything, and then on fathers day we all went to Lani's house, and played volleyball, and had a barbeque, we even went to see the site, and of course Mom and Dad had you in there arms.

Oh and of course last weekend Mom, Dad, Tasi, and of course you came to chicago, for Uncle Pesi and auntie Susie wedding, and everyone is missing you there, Uncle Pesi and Auntie Susie, even dedicated a little saying in there speech for you. I know that you know this all already because you are with all of us all the time, but I just had to tell you this because we are all missing you so much, and wish that you were here in person with us. there is not one day that we dont stop thinking about you, there is not one day how mad I get that you are not here, and everytime I think about all the good times that we all had I just keep crying and crying because we all wanted more of that, brother you were a good, handsome person with a unforgettable smile that no one will ever forget, and dont worry you and kristi's baby will be well taken care of, and Dad, and especially Mom will be taken care of, your baby will learn so much things from everyone, and I will be one of the Aunties that will teach them Polynesian Dancing even if it is a boy, because you know how the men need to learn the slap dance. Well brother I love you and please be with mom when she is on the plane heading to Samoa, which I know you will, We love you, and you are always in our hearts.

Love always your Sis

We didn't spend much time together other than family gatherings, but you always brightened up the room and were so much fun. You will always be in everyone's hearts until we see you again. All of us will help watch over your mom and dad and keep them safe. Miss you Ryan.

“ To Ryan, A.K.A My Brother. As i sit here I wonder in my thoughts were you are, If i could only call you and ask you, I can't witch makes it hard. All the fun times me and you had together I would list them off but this internet site just isn't big enough. You were fun, careing and very respectful, and now since i've been seeing your family alot more i see why you were like that. I`am listening to that song by ludacris lovers and friends and it`s bringing back memories when you were playing it at that one party over and over and over again, probably the funnest time ever just like everytime we used to hang out, i miss you alot and its fun to here you here your voice in my dreams. I love you alot and please watch over all of us and give us the strength to keep moving but to never forget you. Love you brother

It's hard because im not over in the states right now..i cant imagine how torn everyone is over this. You know how much love everyone has for you! It just sucks cause i wanted to be there so bad to say goodbye or be there for everyone. This was the last thing i expected to happen. Im over here in samoa and my mom called the day after she found out..and she goes you know ryan..and i go yea..and im thinkin shes gonna tell me you guys were in chicago and had another party at aunty moe's house but she goes he died..and the first word that came out was no..and i just kept sayin no..and she told me about the accident. And right then i told her i wanted to come home. Man cuz this hella sucks that your gone..i heard you guys were suppose to come down here to samoa this summer..i wish i could've seen u jus one last time..remember we were all waitin for me to turn 18 and then 21 so we could go out and party...lol..and it really hurts knowing that your not gonna be there when that time comes..I was really lookin forward to that..i will always remember the good times we had..u always made everyone laugh. You had a good warm caring heart. You will always be in my heart thoughts and prayers. I LOVE YOU RYAN

To my Aunty Nessa and Uncle Rick...you both had a wonderful son..handsome, funny, and always loving. He loved you both so much. I can't even imagine how much pain you guys could be going thru. But i know he's in a good place. Im sorry i couldn't be there for the funeral..i really wanted to come! I just want to send my love to you both and Tasi!! I love you all very much! May God bless your hearts and help you all through this difficult time.

“ There's nothing one can say to express the joy you've brought into the lives of men women and children of all shapes and sizes and from all walks of life. "Oh' for Sure!" was you're response when asked to do just about anything to help someone else. I've seen people who have been so down they can't even cry anymore, and before they even knew what you were doing you had them smiling, laughing or or even happy again. You always knew how to stand up for what you wanted and you always looked out for some of us who weren't so good at it. My love for you is eternal! If you ever need me to do anything you just let me know. I know you'll be able to tell me, so don't hesitate. Forever rest in peace knowing that what you've left behind is a legacy of love, life and happiness which we who know you will never forget.

“ Ryan... well when I heard.. the first thing I thought of was the look on your face when that Janet Jackson song came on at Waterworks. I guess your happy face is what stuck out in my mind.. that and your love for dancing. It sounds superficial, but your smile was the thing I remembered most about you. It reflected the important things and people in your life. Writing in this guest book actually pisses me off because I'd rather tell you how I've felt this past week and how much this whole thing had made me think twice. Thank you for making me see and feel. Even though we haven't seen each other in a very long time, I'm sure we will someday and when that day comes.. be ready to send me your smile as we hit the dance floor of wherever you may be. Visit me in my dreams. Please, just say hi Mercy.

“ Ryan,

I didn't get to spend a lot of time with you, but when I was around you all I ever saw was that great smile on your face. You had to be the happiest kid I ever met. Your mom would go on and on about you at work to the point I swore I knew everything there was to know about you. You would always turn as red as can be when I would tell you if you were just a few years older I'd date you. You always thought that was so funny coming from an "older" woman. I loved your laugh and your beautiful smile. I know that God will take very good care of you from here on. I wish you were still here, but I'm just glad to have known you while you were and I will never ever forget you.

Nessa,

I know you feel let down right now, but know that God will be with you always and that He is taking good care of your baby right now. We all wish Ryan was still here, to hear his laugh and see his smile, but just imagine the beauty he sees right now in Heaven, walking hand in hand with your mother. I know he can't wait to see you again and wrap his arms around you and say mom I love you.

“ Ryan is someone I will remember as a genuine, caring, beautiful person inside and out. He always had a smile on his face in the hallways of high school and it was contagious. A confident young man who loved life and took every moment to experience it. I knew Ryan from high school and through my sister, Alyson. It was truly a pleasure and honor to know Ryan and I'm sure everyone who knew him feels blessed to have been a part of his life. Rick and Nessa, I don't think I have ever met you personally, but Alyson speaks of you like you were her own family. I send my love and prayers to your family in this time of grief.

*Here's an angel, an awesome guy
Was that the reason he had to die.
His presents brought everyone all the joy,
But nevertheless, it was always more.
Even though you are gone,
We know you want us to be strong.
Family & friends come together,
To mourn an angel with Jack & Jaeger.
As he says, "Don't be sad,
I'm still right here, I had never left."
We wish so much that you were here,
To go clubbin or have some beers.
The happy thoughts will help us get through
You know the ones we shared with you.
On this paper we shall say our goodbyes,
But in our hearts your still alive.

“ To Ryan's Family:

Nancy and I are deeply saddened by the loss of Ryan. He was high school friends with our son Ryan Barron. Ryan and his mom spent time going to the comedy clubs and dinner with Nancy and Ryan Barron. We also had a lot of laughs watching Ryan & Ryan and two other friends perform at a lipsync contest in their senior year at CHHS. What a gas in those jump suits! Ryan also helped us install wood floors 3 years ago when we bought our house in Minnetonka. He was a great sport to put up with my family and friends and the constant wise cracking. He knew how to give it right back, always with the trademark smile. We called him "Moe-Moe" and had a lot of laughs.

I have many endearing thoughts and memories of Ryan. He had a kind and gentle spirit, one that I believe touched everyone he met. His personality was infectious, again led by that smile. I can tell by this guest book that many saw what we did. God puts special people on this earth to touch others - Ryan was one of them! Ryan has been called up far too soon and it's hard for us to understand why. Maybe we can find some comfort in the possibility of his higher purpose, and the indelible mark he's left on so many people.

Ryan Moe was a gift to many people, and especially to those he loved. May God bless you and keep you during this difficult time. May you find comfort in each other and joy in the life that Ryan lived to the fullest.

“ Rick and Nessa,

Regrettably, I didn't spend enough time getting to know Ryan. I can tell you the experiences that I had with him showed that you raised a true gentleman, who was friendly and good natured to all. The stories that I've heard from others all say the same thing. He seemed to love everyone and wasn't afraid to express it. I hope everyone who is hurting right now holds onto this love not only to get through this, but to remember him and smile.

“ Rick and Nessa,
Ryan was a good friend of mine all through middle and high school. I know that just by knowing Ryan I am a better person. We played the same positions in sports and I can remember the strong bond that formed through being teammates, Ryan always pushed me to do my best in sports and that made me stronger both mentally and physically. From sports to the parties in the basement to just hanging out Moe was a true friend. Ryan had a special way about him that if you were down he would say or do something that would lighten your day, and I can not remember when he didn't have a smile on his face. Ryan was the ultimate competitor and the ultimate friend, I will miss him greatly. I wish you all the best in this time of grief, and know that there is always someone here that you can lean on to help you get through this hard time. Moe and I lost touch after high school and I regret not trying to keep in touch more, but I think that this has shown us that life is short and we need to keep those who are important to us close. I know that Ryan is in a better place and will be missed by all who had the privilege to know him and call him friend.

Rest in peace my friend. We will all miss you.

“ My deepest sympathy to you and your family. Sorry to hear about the loss of a great person and a kind soul. I can personally say that I have witnessed Ryan's beautiful smile. He has a smile that will light up a room! It has been a long time since I met him sometime ago at the old AT&T building, but I can still remember him. I wish you (Rick Moe ) and your wife Nessa and your entire family will find a true blessing in the birth of your first grandchild and rejoice in the life that was lent to you, if only for a short while, in Ryan. My prayers go out to you and your family. Former AT&T employee, Meechie

“ Moe-

I still can't believe your gone man. The first thing I thought about when I heard the news was us playing football together. I remember when the coaches would call for us to blitz, you'd just smile at me and say "Meet ya at the quarterback." And junior year when you came up with our nickname, "Sjo-moe belly". I remember senior year when I got my last name changed, you'd still call me "sjoquist" and then you'd get frustrated and laugh and say "You'll always be sjoquist to me!" All the late nights at your house, the parties, the shirt designing for spirit days, (Which i'd make you make mine for me cause of your awesome artistic ability). So many good memories man, I'll never forget them. I wish we could of hung out a little more after high school, and i'm sorry that we lost touch. At least we ran into eachother at Rosedale just a little over a year ago. We all miss you moe, we will never forget you.

“ To Ryan's Family:

I didn't know him well - but well enough to see how kind he was when he dated my niece and made her feel welcome in a new city and school, to see how he took the time to play ball in the front yard with my son, and to know what a kind person he was. I would like to share the following with the family:

*It is a deep mystery
This matter of life and death . . .
That the same person
Who brought us a thousand joys,
Can one day leave us shedding a thousand tears . . .
So suddenly sometimes
That we grope blindly for words left unspoken,
And for the hug we need to give to say good-bye.
We wonder how this thread that holds us all to life
Can be so thin and fragile . . .
One day, we find the courage to accept
That the living aren't meant to understand death,
Only to celebrate life
And to remember that the only real death
Is forgetting.*

May God's peace be with each and every one of you.

“ Ryan,

I don't know where to begin. There is so much we've been through and so much time that was lost between us from high school to now. I want to say I'm sorry for loosing touch but I want to say thank you for all the good times we had. I don't think there was a day that went by in middle school when I was coming and knocking on your window or when you were over at my house. I had so much fun listening to Usher/Notorious BIG and all the other music with you while watching you try out your dance moves. I remember how whenever I was upset or crabby, you would act as goofy as you could or send the famous baby Ryan smile my way just to get me to laugh. Then the days when you weren't doing so good and I would force you to come over and make you play candy land with me. We still have the video from Anna's house where you and Chris were throwing stuff at me while I was trying to film the two of you. I can't believe how many times we snuck out to come to your house or how many holidays I would show up at your door before I went off to my own families place. The best was when Nessa or Rick would be all prepared to yell at you for having someone in your room and then realize it was me and offer me dinner or would linger in your room and chat it up. One of the best times I had with you was laying in your closet listening to Savage Garden on repeat for hours while talking about nothing. I will never forget your Tommy Hilfiger scent or the outrageous hair you would try so hard to tame down. You were such a great friend and was always there when someone needed you. Your energy and spirit was amazing and no matter how much time past since the last time I saw you, I always got a smile on my face whenever I saw an old picture or thought of you. I miss you more then words can describe.

Rick, Nessa, and family-

*I'm truly sorry for your loss. Ryan was a wonderful person and I can't begin to understand what your going through. Thank you for raising such a genuine, loving, and incredible son. “ To Ryan,

You will be forever missed by everyone who knew you. Your smile and your eye's will forever be on my mind. I will hold each memory I have of you close to me forever.

I am so sorry. Words can't be put together on all the things Ryan gave to our family. He was a great kid who lit up a room as soon as he walked in. We have to trust that this was part of God's plan even though things just don't seem fair. I love you both, please let me know if you need anything.

“ We would like to send our deepest sympathy to the family. My boyfriend worked with Ryan and thought he was a great guy. Our thoughts are with the family and his baby. What a great lose for such a young man.
