“ Dear Auntie Franny,

No one knows of the time or the place when we will hear our call to come home. Uncle Sam is doing just fine, and I'm sure he hopes your healing in this time of sorrow will come quick, as do all of us here. He will be missed very very much. I liked his laugh the most, and always looked forward to him greeting me by tugging on my cheeks! :) I'm sure we someday have many family reunions with Grandma, Grandpa, Sam and everyone else. Until then, I pray that happiness comes your way soon.

God Bless,

Rick E
