“ Aunt Sally lived life to the fullest. Although it saddens our hearts to say goodbye, we are grateful for the time that we were given to spend with her. Our last memory of Sally is of her dancing her heart out at Matt and Megan's wedding. We all encouraged her to take a break, but she wouldn't hear of it. (This of course, was only a couple of months after sustaining a cardiac arrest). She was one in a million. The memory of her laughter and smile will continue to warm our hearts. We love you Aunt Sally.

“ I was sorry to hear of Sally's passing, and would like to send my condolences to her family. Sally and I were junior bridesmaids together for her sister Ann Eva's wedding to my uncle, Jul Kubes. She was loads of fun when we went shopping for bridesmaid dresses in the "cities," and when we ate at the Forum afterwards. She did a "Prunella Kolache" impression that cracked me up. Later, during the summer of 1955 when I worked at NPHS, she was a good friend because I was very lonely. I had gone to school in Faribault, and then business school in Minneapolis, and didn't know anyone except the Holub family. Her mother was very nice to me, also. You always remember the people who were kind to you when you really need it. Thank you, Sally.
