July 14, 2011

Pratt, Sally Passed ever so gently, peacefully and gracefully into the arms of our Lord on July 7. Passing before her: loving parents, Carl & Marit Hanson, loving husband of 59 years, George J. Pratt, Sr.; siblings: Orval P. Hanson, Louise Johnson and Orvil K. Hanson. Survived by sister, Myrtle Brown; loving sons, George J. Pratt, Jr. (Vonda) and David A. Pratt (Patricia); grandchildren Chad Pratt (Erin), Ginger Allen (Darin), Jillian Pratt and Whitney Pratt; and great-grandson, Connor George Pratt; many nieces and nephews. Sally was energetic and social, as well as an entrepreneur in the days when it was less common for a woman to be a business owner. She was the tireless owner of Sally's Beauty Shop for over 30 years. Sally had a heightened appreciation for the arts, as exhibited through her many paintings and numerous art projects. She was a proud member of the St. Louis Park Women's Club for many years and Interlachen Country Club for 55 years. She is a past-president of the Women's 18-holers golf at Interlachen and she wrote for the Interlocutor for many years. In her earlier years, Sally was a horsewoman, a student pilot at age 19 and enjoyed pheasant hunting with the family. She was passionate about golf. Sally leaves behind a legacy of Love for family.
