“ Such an elegant, but down-to-earth; polite, but dangerously witty woman. I will always be grateful to Sally and all the Warners for welcoming me into their home when I most needed the comfort of a wonderful, boisterous, outgoing family. Sallie’s baking made me swoon. Her singing was angelic. Her equally skillful and joyful entertaining set the standard to which 35 years later I still aspire. I am thinking now of Sally reunited with Tuck and Brad, singing and making bars.
