

"Sam" Samuel-Casperson

February 22, 2003 - January 2, 2020

Sam Casperson was a polite and respectful young man who was quick to help when needed. He wasn't a big talker but had a quick wit and always had a perfectly timed one-liner or sarcastic comeback. His ability to remember even the longest random codes and passwords amazed those who knew him. He was a Boy Scout his entire life and was an avid fisherman. He always had great hair and loved animals, video games, and most of all, his family and friends.

Sam passed away unexpectedly January 2, 2020 at the age of 16. He was a Junior at Blaine High School. Those who knew and loved him are in shock and pain. He will be deeply missed by everyone who had the joy to know him. Seldom is anyone prepared when a tragedy such as this strikes.

Sam is preceded in death by his grandmother, Jan Casperson. Left to cherish his memory are his parents, Mark and Janet Casperson; his sisters, Amber and Lucy; grandparents, Joni and Dennis Anderson, and Rick Casperson; uncles and aunts, Brian and Zoe, Eric and Yvonne, and Steven and Heidi; cousins, Alyssa, Avery, Nic, Owen, Ethan and Eliana; and many other loving family and close friends.

Memorial service will be Thursday, January 9th, 2020, 4-6:30 PM with a prayer service from 6:30-7 at Saint Timothy Catholic Church 707 89th Ave.

N.E., Blaine.
