“ Andrea and Tom,

I was deeply saddened to hear about the loss of Sam. After working with Emily for years (and Lyndsay and Sam a handful of times) I really learned what a wonderful family you have. Sam was a good kid and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. I know there are no words I can offer to make this incredibly difficult time any easier, but I wish you strength as a family to cope with how things are now. You are all in my thoughts.

“ The last time I saw Sam was in Surrey, Canada, almost a year ago. We were there to watch Tyler play Junior Hockey against the Surrey Eagles. While I was walking down the corridor, I saw this young man stop in front of me and called my name, " Mrs. Rockwell, don't you remember me?" I stopped and looked at him closer, and I said, " Sam, is that you? I didn't recognized you with a growing beard. You look very handsome." At this point, he was laughing. We spoke for a little bit more and I wished him well.

Sam will be missed. The Rockwell family sends their deepest sympathy. We have lighted a candle for him. God bless.
