“ While I hadn't seen Sam in many years, I recall him fondly. He was a funny guy. I am sad to hear of him passing at such a young age. I know many of us from Columbia Heights recall Sam as having a great ear for listening and being there for a friend.

“ My heart goes out to you Kathy and family. The last time I saw Sam was at my dad's funeral and the time before that I was 13 or 14 years old. From that day I always said that I hope that if I ever had any kids, that they would be just like Sammy.... He was the only child that I have ever seen that was so polite and well behaved. I have told so many people about him. God Bless you all...

“ Psalm 11 Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, 2 but whose delight is in the law of the LORD, and who meditates on his law day and night. 3 That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither— whatever they do prospers. 4 Not so the wicked! They are like chaff that the wind blows away. 5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous. 6 For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked leads to destruction.
