“ One thing always comes to mind when it comes to Sandy. She'd sit and listen to us either in argument or discussion and when asked her opinion she'd pause a few moments before speaking. She's very strong and she taught us all a lot if we paid attention to the details of a memory. In Anishinaabe'Ojibwe culture and language we never say goodbye, that's a definite instead we say gigawaabamin meaning "later I shall see you" . Because no matter what we will see each other again if not omaa (here) then i'iwidi (over there) talking about ishpimin (sky world or floor above, spirit world aka heaven) we'll miss you but we know we can look to bagonegiizhig (hole in the sky, Pleiades) and speak to you and that you made it home. Your in a better place, you've been called home. We come from love and someday we return to love and she taught us love. Miigwech bizindawiyeg mi'iw baamaa gigawaabamin Sandy we love you.

“ To Toney and family,
I was really saddened to hear of Sandy's passing. I met Toney and Sandy through our membership in VVA Chapter 470. When Toney was elected President of the Chapter I started calling Sandy the First Lady. She always got a chuckle out of it. She always had a smile! Enjoyed a number of adult beverages at the Anoka Legion with Sandy and Toney. Very good times I'll remember. RIP
