“ My sincere condolences to the Forsythe family on Sandy's passing. I will ALWAYS have my memories of Sandy's joy and laughter while we made cards at Roberta's card events. Sandy always enjoyed tweaking the designs and wasn't afraid to make changes so the homemade cards would reflect her personality. I cherish those days with Sandy and her daughter Jeannie. She gave the best hugs when we left the events with our bag of homemade cards. I also liked listening to the stories of those that were able to work with her at Robins/Zelle and her yellow VW bug! I am sending LOTS of LOVE to the family!
