“ There's a picture of Sandy and me when I was about a year old. She's holding me in a swinging chair in my parents' dining room in Zumbrota. It was 1979. As a child, I adored her. My parents had many good friends, but she was my favorite. I think what made me inherently trust her as a young kid was her absolute authenticity. And joy. A joyful, upbeat person I instinctually gravitated toward. I didn't realize then how rare of a personality Sandy had. I miss her and think of her often. The fact that I remember her so vividly almost 50 years later is a testament to what a fabulous beaming light of a person she was. I hope her passing was painless and peaceful.

“ I was thinking about my years living and working in Santa Monica and recalling a dear friend from that time, Sandy Windhorst. I typed her name into Google and, unfortunately came up with this obit. Her name is not common and I remember that she was from Minneapolis and worked in the medical or nursing profession. I must assume it is the same Sandy Windhorst and am saddened.

Sandy and I were good friends in 1973 when both of us lived in Santa Monica. Sandy was about 24 or so at that time and I have many fond memories of sharing dinners, movies, long walks and days at the nearby beach. I fondly recall a warm and likable young lady. After she moved back to MN I lost touch other than a few emails to swindhorst@resources-MNO-org.

My sincerest condolences to her many friends and family

“ A former classmate let me know that Sandra had passed away. I immediately starting thing of the memories I had with her. I remember that she sat behind me in study hall. She was always making me laugh and I believe that we got moved because we were talking so much. She always had a ready smile and was there for listening if you need to share something with her. My condolences go out to her family and friends, as she will be greatly missed.

“ Speaking for the Lincoln High Class of 1964 please accept our deepest sympathies
Sandy was a special person to all of us in the class.
Her sense of humor,her caring nature,her infectious personality made her a Standout member.
She will be missed at reunion times.
I remember Sandy telling me at our 46th reunion that she was a professional Clown,
What a surprise!
I'm sorry I didn't have the opportunity to see her before she passed.
I (we) will always remember Sandy, she was special in so many ways.

“ I first met Sandy when I started school at Oak Center - we were a small close group of kids. We had many happy times together staying overnight at one another's homes. Thus, we knew the entire family and could rely on them to take care of us on the 'bus' to and from school. It saddened me to receive the email from friends that Sandy was very ill and had then passed away. Our deepest sympathy to Sandy's family.

Wow. I asked Sandy to marry me in 1968. She was wise (and very kind) to decline. I've always remembered her in a special way. Aging is challenging in ways you never expect.
