With hearts full of sorrow yet anchored in hope, we announce the passing of Sara Nicole Mazza, who entered eternal rest on September 13, 2025, surrounded by the faith, love, and grace of her family.

Born in Mankato, Minnesota, on May 22, 1975, Sara lived a life marked by hugs, handshakes, and kisses for everyone she knew. No one was a stranger to Sara; everyone was her friend. Her heart and light filled the room.

Sara is survived by her parents, Kathy and David Mazza; a brother, Chris, and his wife Julie; nephews, Keegan and Leo Mazza; aunt and uncle, Betsy and Randy Goetz; cousins, Jami and Joey Goetz; Leah Jesser (Jami's fiancée); cousin, Jennifer Minisci; Mary Edwards, for all her support and caring; aunt and uncle, Lynne and Bill Tice; cousins William and Christopher Tice; aunt and uncle, Kevin and Doreen Mazza; and cousins, Christina Karl and Aaron Mazza. All of these loved ones will carry forward Sara's legacy of love and sweetness, which earned her the nickname "lollipop" from her dad, David. Sara was preceded in death by her grandparents, John and Edith Teig; grandparents Joseph Mazza and Marjorie Steeb; and uncle, Mike Teig.

A celebration of Sara's life and faith will be held on Thursday, September 25th, at Edinbrook Church, 4300 Edinbrook Pkwy., Brooklyn Park, MN 55443. A reviewal will take place at 10:00 am, followed by a service at 11:00 am with lunch to follow. All are welcome to join in honoring a soul who now rests in the arms of the Savior.

In lieu of flowers and memorials, please consider a donation to the Down Syndrome Association of MN.

Though we grieve, we do not grieve as those without hope. For we know that Sara has entered into the joy of the Lord, where pain is no more and love is everlasting.
