“ I wanted to share my memories with Sarah. I remember when we were on a bowling league (her ball was pink) and we were trying not to break our nails. and if we scored 100 we were elated. I remember all our casino runs and how we had to get to the buffet at the exact time between breakfasts & lunch so Sarah could have mashed potatoes with breakfast. I remember coach purse shopping in Vegas, going to different zoos and country music fests. Rollerskating and her wonderful laugh. I still see her smiling and hear her laughter. I miss her more than she will ever know.
