“ My beautiful Sarah. I cannot express the thoughts how much I feel about this. You have been on my mind a lot lately. Although I did not see you at your funeral service, Michael and I are going to visit your grave and bring flowers and a memory box filled with pictures and personal messages sent to you my angel. There are too many of our young friends that have gone at such a young age. And I know with that comes with so many questions.... faith. We tend to question, and get angry, and say why why, why it takes such a young girl. The answer is simple. You did not leave us, you just went home. I know your faith and God was waiting open arms.

You and I used to go to church together and even babysit there I remember. We shared a lot of funny memories. You are always positive upbeat, funny, beautiful, and had the most gorgeous daughter ever. I remember we both were excited that we named our kids with k names that were so similar. We shared a lot of things in common. And now although we haven't had contact in the last few years we shared in my opinion the best time in life which is growing up, and seen our kids grow up.

When I feel sad I well remember that choosing to love and know you and lose you, was better than to have not known you at all. That is the nature of loving family and friends. Again you are home now my beautiful angel.

My heart goes out to your sister and your family, and most importantly your daughter. May she find peace in this hard time knowing that her mom enjoyed living loving and smiling. She loves her life and she was a very happy person. She adored her daughter.

Your legacy is your daughter and she will always remember you're beautiful face.

You have the biggest smile in the world and I will always remember that.

I have the cutest pictures of us with Jason, mike, alex, and a few others at the bowling alley in EP. We look like babies. I have the most coolest pictures of Kyle when she was young this cute little blue sweater and her big pigtails. I will bring that with and put it in your gift box to share with you. This is not goodbye... I have been praying for you and talking to you, I know you can hear me and I love you dearly. My love to your family, here's your friend Ames

“ I cannot find the words to express my sincere condolences to your beautiful daughter Kaya and your family. I loved working with you, but more importantly the conversations we have had over the years. You are one of the most free spirited, yet loving hearts I know of. Rest easy my friend. And give Abbey a hug up there. 💕💕 I love you ~~ Sue
