“ Kevin McHale and Family:

Sorry to hear about the passing of your daughter, Sasha. Our thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this traumatic time. No one can ever prepare us for the day we lose anyone in our life. The only thing that gets us through the moment is all the love and caring that comes from those around us; plus the fact you know she knows you loved her during her time on earth.

“ Kevin,

Although we have never met, I feel obligated to express my sympathy for you and your family. This has been a tragic situation. For the Lord had decided to call Sasha home. I want you to know that He has not left you. Though you cannot see the outcome. Trust the Lord, He knows what's best; Be assured He sees your trial and He's with you in your test. You and your family, must bond together even closer now. The Love and Strength from each other shall prove to be even stronger.

I will keep you and your family in my prayers.

*Love,

“ To the McHale Family, I am so, so sorry for your loss. Sasha was one of my first employee's hired at The Village Scoop with Rachel. Getting to know her was such an honor. The laughs and fun we had.. created such wonderful memoires of such a beautiful young lady. Words cannot express how sorry we all feel for your entire family.

“ Dear Kevin, Lynn and Family,

I wanted to express my deepest sympathy and concern for you and also share with you the wonderful hope for our dead loved ones. As you grieve Sasha's death, please reflect on the hope in question, which comes from our Creator, Jehovah God. By means of the Bible, He promises to eliminate death for good one day and bring our dead loved ones back to life again. This is evident in Scriptures like (Isaiah 25: 8), (John 5: 28), (1 Corinthians 15:26), (Revelation 21:3 and 4), which can comfort you in your sorrow. God's promises are guaranteed because He cannot lie (Titus 1: 2). Moreover John 11 verses 11-14, 39, 43, and 44 attests that Jesus, whom God appoints to bring the dead back to life, can do it since he demonstrated that when he resurrected Lazarus and two other people when he was on earth. So as you await Sasha's resurrection, please heed Jesus' counsel at John 17 verse 3 by making time to gain accurate knowledge of Jehovah and Jesus through a FREE Bible study with the Witnesses. Learning the truth from the Bible will strengthen you and help you endure till you reunite with your daughter again, here on earth, which will become a paradise free all the problems we deal with today such as SICKNESS, DEATH, VIOLENCE, WAR, OLD AGE etc...as highlighted in the following Scriptures: (Isaiah 33:24), (Ps 37: 9-11 and 29), (Psalms 46: 8 and 9), (Job: 33:25).

“ As a mother of a college age daughter who battles lupus there are no words to convey how much my heart breaks for all who knew and love Sasha. I will continue to do everything in my power to raise lupus awareness with even more passion in honor of Sasha's and her beautiful life that ended way to soon. Praying for peace and comfort for the days & months ahead.

“ Kevin, Lynn and the McHale family:

Please know your grief hits home here in Boston. May God give you the strength and may you find comfort in knowing how many people are saddened. To paraphrase Bruce Springsteen, "May her strength give you strength, may her faith give you faith, may her hope give yo hope, may her love bring you love."

“ Dear Lynn,
It's been many years since we've been in touch, but I have such fond memories of the Needham/Newton playgroup we started when Kristyn and my son Matthew were in preschool. I remember well as your family grew, and how you embraced motherhood so naturally and with such ease and good humor. I was beyond heartbroken to hear about your devastating loss. I can't begin to fathom the pain and sadness it brings. Please accept my heartfelt condolences, and know that you and your family will stay in my thoughts. Lauri Mitchell

“ Kevin and Lynn and Family,

Koz and I have you in our daily prayers.

*"It's hard to know just what to say,
When one so young is taken away.
Far too soon she had to part,
Her memory forever engraved in our heart.*

*We only knew her for a short while,
But the life she led made us smile.
She was so beautiful and oh so rare,
Life as they say just isn't fair.*

*Those gone before her will watch her with care,
Till the day comes when we'll all join her there.*

*Know Sasha is watching from heaven above,
And with each ray of sunshine, she's sending her love."
Love, Koz and Ellen*

“ Dear Kevin and Lynn,
My heart is heavy with sadness for your loss. I taught Sasha as a freshman at T-G and had the opportunity to watch and cheer for her in the stands as they made their way to the Target Center in her senior year. She was a vibrant and spirited young woman. But my hearts go out to you and your family, today... I can not imagine the pain of burying your precious daughter. I am so sorry. My family will continue to keep you in our prayers. May the joy-filled memories of Sasha and Christ's love help lessen some of the pain that that you are feeling in your hearts.

“ Kevin, Lynn and Family--I simply have no words to express my deep sadness at the passing of your wonderful daughter, Sasha. I enjoyed greatly meeting her as a young child at Target Center and even more watching her as a young lady play basketball at Totino Grace. She was a credit to her team, friends, school and certainly her family for the way she competed and carried herself on and off the court. I can't imagine the sorrow you are experiencing and I can only hope all your memories of Sasha can buoy you at this incredibly difficult time. The thoughts and prayers of my family are with you now and going forward. May the peace of Christ give you strength.
