“ We met back in 2008/2009 back in the Halo 3 days and when our friend groups merged we found a couple of life long friendships, with us being one of them. We had a lot of good times, and it's very sad to see you gone so early in life. It was a good almost 20 years knowing you Scottland. We'll see you when we see you brother man

“ Scott you will be deeply missed! You were a great friend and I'm glad that I had the pleasure of knowing you. All the way back to 2008 when we happened to meet in a Halo 3 customs game. Crazy that joining friends of friends in a game where thousands of people were playing we joined the same lobby and maintained a close relationship for almost 17 years. We had a pretty close group of friends that regularly played with each other throughout the years, people from California, Kansas, Missouri, Florida, New York, and even Mexico. I will not forget all the times spent on various games playing late at night when we probably should have been in bed cause we had school the next day. I will miss you informing me EVERY time the Kansas Jayhawks lose in April, also I know its been hard to inform me when the Chiefs lose cause the last few years they haven't done too much of that. Lol. I'll miss giving you grief for being a Vikings fan, or living in the Land of 10,000 ponds. Scott even though we never got to meet in person or hang out you were still one of best friends, you were one of a kind. Love you man, see you again sometime.

PS. If the Chiefs don't 3-peat I know you are pulling some strings.
