“ I am so sorry for the loss that your family has suffered. I have known Scott since I was about 10, he was a very good friend of my dad's, and they golfed together at Bunker Hills, where I rode along. I read that Scott wanted people to tell Josh that he was a "Helluva Fighter", well Josh, My dad took me to two fights, (both your dad's at the met)I'm still A huge boxing fan because of your dad.He was a HELLUVA FIGHTER!!!! What a loss for the people that knew him, and those that had yet to meet him. Scott was one of the most considerate, caring people that I have ever had the priviledge to know, every life that he touched is richer because of him!

“ In 1999, we were present when Scott interviewed our granddaughter, Tarryn, for her Disney Make a Wish trip--that was before Wishes and More. He was so kind to her and left quite an impression on us. We lost her one year later to brain cancer and are so thankful for the memories we soaked up on that trip.
