“ Scott this week on Thursday May 15th, 2025, I get to meet a very special person. It is Jaxson Fie your Grandson, son of your daughter Nicole. I am going to tell him what a great person you are. You are a great husband, Father, Son, SIL, Brother, Friend and now Grandpa. You provide a great amount of Love and Joy to us, even to this day and Forever. You reside in all our hearts not just in Heaven. You are always close when we need you. I will tell Jaxson you are always there for him. To say, Hey Grandpa you know what I did at school. or just to say I Love Grandpa. Scott I Love you, I miss you and you are in my heart Forever. Your Friend James Valois

“ Dear Cheryl and Family, I worked with Scott at Deluxe a few years ago. He was a great guy who always had a smile on his face. Knowing him had a lasting impact on my life. He was very open and willing to talk when I asked him about his disease. (I had a lot of questions and learned a lot from him.) As the years went by and walking was getting tougher... I asked him if he had considered a wheelchair for work since it was such a long way to the bathroom and cafeteria. His response was, “I know I will need one eventually, but I want to wait until I absolutely have to – I’m afraid that once I start using it, I will never walk again.” “Use it or lose it!” He was not ready to give in yet because he wanted to play with his kids as long as he could. Today, I am a nurse. Whenever someone in recovery does NOT want to walk, I think of Scott and, “use it or lose it”. It’s a simple way to remind the patient that they have to try if they want to walk again. Bless you all, my thoughts are with you.

“ Sammy was the best brother-in-law anyone could ever ask for. I never heard him raise his voice, talk badly of anyone, or complain about the horrible hand he was dealt. He is now walking and running with the angels. "Walk on Sammy, with hope in your heart and you'll never walk alone ..." I will never forget you and will always love you!
