

Scott Stein

July 26, 2010

Stein, Scott Robert Age 60, of Eden Prairie passed away Thursday, July 22, 2010. Preceded in death by parents, Lloyd "Snapper" and Agnes Stein. He is survived by wife, Janis; son, Brian Stein (Michelle, granddaughters, Taylor and Ashley); daughter, Lindsay Stein; sister, Julie Stein; brother, John Stein (Kaye); along with many other loving relatives. Scott succumbed to complications of Multiple Myeloma after a courageous 5-year battle. His manner dealing with his illness was undeniably one of his greatest achievements in life. Never a complaint was heard from him. He dealt with his illness head on. Scott was raised in Richfield. At Richfield High School, he excelled in several sports, lettering in baseball, football and basketball. Scott was the catcher for the 1965 State Championship Baseball Team. He received a baseball scholarship to the University of Minnesota, where he served as team captain. Scott was a lifelong fan of Minnesota Gopher athletics. Scott and Jan built a northern Minnesota lake home in 1985. "The Cabin" was one of Scott's favorite places, where he would spend time making home improvements, cooking up BBQ, and enjoying pontoon rides with family and friends. Memorial service will be Tuesday, July 27, 6:30 PM, with visitation starting at 5:00 PM at St. Andrew Lutheran Church, 13600 Technology Drive, Eden Prairie (1 mile W. of 494 along State Hwy 5/212). Memorials preferred to Multiple Myeloma Research Foundation. Washburn-McReavy Eden Prairie Chapel 952-975-0400
