“ Sharen and I sat together in church every Sunday. She had surprised me one Sunday and made me a purple bracelet. Then she made me a few more. I love my bracelets. This past Christmas I gave her a job to do. I wanted to give some of her bracelets as gifts. So she made quite a few for me to do that. Everyone loved there bracelets. I wanted to pay her but didn't want to take anything for them but I did it anyway. She was a sweet lady. I will never forget this, in October 2014 I was diagnosed with cancer. She would pray for me every day til I had my surgery. When I went to have my surgery in January 2015, she said that Sunday before my surgery she was going to pray for me all day. I believe she did too. That Sunday before my surgery she gave me a big hug too. I will miss her terribly we gave each other hugs every Sunday and told each other to have a great week. I already miss her hugs. She was a great friend. Love & miss you Sharen.

“ We had so many memories with Ron and Sharen. They were in our culdesec. Sharen was a fabulous cook. She enjoyed fixing traditional foods for Ron. They were so helpful with their children and parents. Sharen was a devout Catholic. It is reassuring that the two of them are together again.

Loving hugs and condolences to you all.
