“ My good friend Sharon was such a blessing . She would always have time to talk. We had many laughs together. We had many fun times together .Christmas was her favorite time of the year one year her and I decorated the whole church! One time she decided to buy my Grandson a gift a huge bunny She came to the door I opened the door she fell into my house!! The bunny was bigger then her . We laughed so hard. I will miss our talks and laughs. I know she having a blast and I will see her again.
