

Sharon Dawn Roscoe

January 21, 1938 - May 31, 2022

Roscoe, Sharon Dawn (nee Lee), age 84 of St. Anthony, passed away peacefully on May 31st, with her beloved family by her side after a short illness.

Sharon was a teacher while she raised her 3 daughters. Eventually, she remarried, and the two enjoyed early retirement. As a widow, she moved to Hollywood, FL, where she became a loved and valued member of the community, and a member of the American Legion Post #304 Auxiliary in Dania Beach, FL.

Sharon was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Roscoe; parents, Dorthey and Clarence Lee; daughters, Christine Yanke and Caryn Miller; siblings, Richard Lee and Carol Standaert; grandson, Tony Bates; and special friend, Dick DePung.

Sharon is survived by her daughter, Cathy Bates; brother, Mike (Dixie) Lee; grandchildren, Gregory (Stephanie) Bates, Nicholas (Mary) Miller, Scott Miller, Shannon Coolbaugh, Mark (Ashley) Miller; great-grandchildren, Hayden, Tobin, Isabella, Jax, Maddax; and other family members and dear friends too numerous to count. A special thanks to Kevin Savage for the love and care he showed to Sharon. Our matriarch will be sorely missed.
