“ I am so saddened to hear of both Terry and Sharon's deaths. They were a wonderful Christian couple. So gracious and loving. I enjoyed getting to know them at Peace Church and visiting them when they were living at Ecumen in Apple Valley. Yes, truly, they are missed.

I pray that during the days and months ahead as you share photos, keepsakes, memories, and stories -- some you may have never heard before and some you can't hear often enough -- that you will have smiles among your tears. God bless you and give you comfort and peace.
