“ Anne,

March 30th, 2023, will be a very special day, a day to reflect and honor a truly special person, your husband Shel. He always spoke so fondly of you. I won't ever forget that schoolboy smile of his when he looked at you on that pedestal.

These past twenty years I've had enjoyed forging a strong friendship with the two of you. I first met Shel playing pool at the old Elk River Community Center...the hours we spent together since that day!

Shel was a unique guy. He never did anything halfway; it was always 100%. That was the way he lived his life, to the fullest. He became my best friend over the years, always sharing and caring, always willing to offer that helping hand, even before being asked. So many good memories,,,,,

Our friendship kept growing, helping all of us become better people.

Shel loved life, life loved Shel...and we love Shel.

May God grant you continual comfort and peace.
