

Shelly Johnson

December 20, 1946 - September 10, 2024

Shelly "Pee Wee" Johnson Sr. was born on December 20, 1946, in Natchez, Mississippi, to the late Roosevelt and Georgia Johnson. He passed away on September 10, 2024, at Methodist Hospital in St. Louis Park, Minnesota.

Shelly attended Sadie V. Thompson High School and later graduated from Atterbury Job Corps in Indiana, specializing in Building Residential Maintenance. He moved to Minnesota, where he worked as a Maintenance Technician and Commercial Truck Driver.

Known for being polished, well-dressed, and a jack of all trades, Shelly was a dedicated worker who enjoyed fishing, gardening, and watching old westerns. He was always ready to share his humor, offer a helping hand, and, later in life, devoted himself to the Lord as a member of Living Word Christian Center.

Shelly is survived by his son, Shelly "Chico" Johnson Jr. (Alenda); daughters, Angela Willis (Julius), Shanika Bumphurs, and Shawna Nash (Andre); bonus mother, Freddie Johnson; bonus sister, Marva Jean Polk (Herman); grandchildren; great-grandchildren; and many family and friends. He will be deeply missed.

“ I lived next door to Pee Wee and knew him all the way back to our marble shooting days. He was a 'lil older than me, but he and my older brother(Big) were the best of friends. We played cards for matches, loaned out your bike, helped each other work on the old cars we had, pushed when you ran out of gas, Thompson swimming pool, Clark theater downtown(when the blacks and whites did not sit together back then), doing the James Brown at our neighborhood hang out(The Horseshoe), stealing boot leg from his dad, partying on the LA side of the bridge(Danny's), shooting pool(he rarely, if ever lost, shagging balls at the golf course, etc, etc,. We talked often because he and I were two of the very few that was still left. I was serching for him when his nephew Yogi was up there the week before he passed away. I'll miss him from keeping me on the phone for hours laughing about the memories and asking, even though he knew the answer..."REMEMBER THAT TIME"??? Acey Cameron
