“ For many years I called the ever cheerful, delightful, witty, "Sully" several times a year and we updated one another on our health, families, events and even the movement of the massive flocks of crows that passed back and forth across Summit Avenue at certain times of the year. Yet, while I initiated these calls, if a hurricane approached, passed near or made landfall anywhere close to my home in Florida a call from Sully inquiring about my welfare was sure to follow! Myself and all who knew him will miss him terribly.
