“ I am sorry for your loss. When the enemy death strikes, your grief can be great, even though you may hope in the resurrection. Yet, because you have confidence in the resurrection, your sorrow will not be unrelenting. As the Bible say, you will "not sorrow just as the rest also do who have no hope." (1Thessalonians 4:13) Rather, you will draw close to God in prayer, and the Bible promises that" he himself will sustain you" please find comfort in this, during your difficult days ahead.
