“ I have loved Aunt Shirley since I met her when she married Uncle Floyd when I was in 2nd grade. She was kind, gracious, gentle and always had time to listen. I had the honor of working with her as well. She treated everyone with respect, and she was so very smart and also wise. I learned so much from her. In a nutshell, Shirley was a classy and extraordinary woman with a great sense of humor. Our whole family will miss her, and we send our sincere sympathy to Paul, Caryn and Sue and families. Much love, Linda

“ This is Shirley's nephew John Lobanowski. Such a kind and wonderful woman who was very much loved. I recall one year she and Uncle Floyd were out here back in the 80's for a Teamster meeting I believe. I got to repay some of their kindness by touring them around Seattle. Good times for sure. Always lots of food at Aunt Shirley's and the best thing was choosing a cereal from dozens of different kinds. And we always had the obligatory trip to Minnetonka where Uncle Floyd always gave us a tutorial on Tonka Toys and Aunt Shirley saying "oh Floyd" Thank you for all the memories Aunt Shirley, I love you...

“ Hello this is Julie Lobanowski (Martin) Aunt Shirley's niece. I remember my last visit with her and Uncle Floyd, I couldn't get over all of the food.

Her joy and love has carried me through many tough times.

I remember the twin beds in the basement had the same bedspreads I sold at Sears while I was in college..

Oh and so many cereals to choose from for breakfast.

I am lucky to have had such a lovely human being as my aunt

Love to all,

Julie
