To Jeff, Jim, and Joe,

I just heard the the sad news of your mother's passing. I am so very sorry for your loss. It has been awhile since I have spoken to her but I always got a kick out of it when I did call her. She still always called me Brucie. I know how hard times like this are but I am sure you have many fond memories that will help bring a smile through the tears.

Lorraine,

I know this has to be a very hard time for you with the loss of your sister and I was very sorry to hear this sad news. Your heart must be very heavy and I offer you my deepest sympathies during the very hard time.

*My sincere condolences,
Bruce*

“ Jeff, Jim and Joe,
I was so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She was a wonderful lady and I admired her more than words can say. She and your dad were a gorgeous couple, and both were charming, kind-hearted, and fun to spend time with. I have very warm memories of both of them. And, although I'm sad your mom is gone, I can't help but smile when I think that she is now lighting up Heaven the same way she lit up every room she entered. She will be missed by everyone who knew and still loves her. You have my deepest and most sincere sympathy.

Lorraine,
I am sorry for the loss of your wonderful, beautiful sister. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your nephews as you go through this sad time together. I'm hoping you will give each other comfort and strength by sharing happy memories of Shirley and celebrating her life. My deepest sympathy to you.

Bruce,
I am sorry for the loss of your dear Aunt. I know you loved her too. She was a true example of class and beauty (both inside and out) and had an impact on our lives. My thoughts, prayers, and sympathy are with you too, as I know this is a sad time for you as well.
