

Shirley Mae Hardie

November 23, 1934 - November 17, 2023

Shirley Mae Hardie, (Rose) 88, of Minnetonka passed away on 11/17/2023 surrounded by family.

Preceded in death by Parents Carl F. Rose and Florence R. Rose (Bruels), Brothers Dale Rose (Janice) and Gary Rose.

Survived by Daughters Brenda Barrs and Sandra Akabwai (Milton), Grandchildren Alec Carnes, Abigail Barrs, Courtney Wilson (Josh), Great Grandbaby on the way and Andrew Barrs, Siblings Dean Rose (Ardis), Terry Rose (Dorothy), Sharon Dauk (Tom), Cynthia Sterle (Larry) and Kimberly Rose (Dan Bonin) and many nieces and nephews.

Shirley was always a caretaker for all of her life. She was the eldest of 8 children, contributing to the family by cooking, cleaning and assisting with the wellbeing of her siblings. Once she left her hometown of St. Clair, she moved to Minneapolis to Nanny for a large family and put her skills into work. Later worked for a phone company, North Western Bell and during this time, she started her own family. She worked hard to balance family and work responsibilities. Shirley was a strong and independent woman who could do it all. Interests included working in her garden and yard, attending Red Hat functions and keeping up on current affairs. She had a love for animals. Some may say her furry friends were her best friends of all.
