“ Dear Lanny, Judy, Rob and Tom - Your mom is probably the first person I remember knowing outside my own family. I will hear her voice always, shortly followed by a smile. The first time we met was at a sandbox in St. Louis Park, chasing after Sammy the dog. The last time I saw her was at Jennifer's wedding, not long after my girls were born. She was so delighted to see my two newborn babies that she asked to borrow one and then happily disappeared for a very long time indeed! It was just like Shirley, who always made me feel that life is good, and the more the merrier. Thinking about all of you. Love, Rachel (Bardy) Robertson

“ Fond memories of Shirley and Bill and family over many years of triumphs, difficulties and just plain good times. They were always truly there for others. I miss them. Janet B.
