"Death is not the opposite of life but a part of it."

by Haruki Murakami

To free her spirit into the next stage of higher being, mother's passing is a journey that takes her into a higher plane of existence.

Even though mother can't come to us now in physical form except in spirit and in dream, we will meet her again in spirits when our times come.

“ My deepest condolences on the loss of your mom, my Yeema. Meeting her first when we visited Hong Kong and after everyone came to MN. During these past fifty years she was a constant in our lives and devoted to family and passing on to us our culture and values. Her constant presence throughout the years at every event our families shared was reassuring and comforting. Love you, rest in peace. Mona Wong

“ Being born, growing old, becoming ill, and dying are four stages in life nobody can avoid. Mom lived a long life. She never worked outside of her home and dedicated her entire life caring for her family. She not only raised the five of us, she also helped raise her four grandchildren by providing daycare while we worked. For that, we will forever be thankful. I believe in Heaven and the Rainbow Bridge. Our body will leave this world someday, but our spirit and love for each other will go on living. We will meet again in another world.

Thank you Mom, we love you.

“ One of my favorite songs is a pop and operatic aria hybrid titled "Mama". I couldn't think of better words to express how I feel about my "Ma".

Mama - by Il Divo

*"Mama thank you for who I am, thank you for all the things I'm not Forgive me for the words unsaid and for the times I forgot
Mama remember all my life, you showed me love, you sacrificed Think of those young and early days, how I've changed along the way
(Along the way)*

[Chorus:]

*And I know you believed and I know you had dreams
And I'm sorry it took all this time to see
That I am where I am because of your truth
And I miss you, yeah I miss you*

[Verse 2:]

*Mama forgive the times you cried, forgive me for not making right
All of the storms I may have caused and I've been wrong dry your eyes
Dry your eyes*

[Chorus:]

*Cause I know you believed and I know you had dreams
And I'm sorry it took all this time to see
That I am where I am because of your truth
And I miss you, I miss you*

[Verse 3:]

*Mama I hope this makes you smile, I hope you're happy with my life
At peace with every choice I made how I've changed along the way
Cause I know you believed in all of my dreams*

And I owe it all to you, mama"

I miss you, Ma.
