“ Mr. Raub was a wonderful teacher - the best I had at Richfield High. I am glad I reconnected with him in a very small way a couple of years ago when I happened to meet one of his daughters, learned he was living in the area, and sent him a note of thanks for treating me and all students like people, and taking our adolescent ideas and dreams seriously, and trying to channel them into effective directions. My sympathy to Mr. Raub's surviving family. Rest in peace, Mr. R. - Elisabeth Parrish Gilleland

I remember when Mr. Raub gave me some timely encouragement that ended up changing the trajectory of my high school years, and really, of my life. I'm glad to see that he enjoyed a long and fruitful life. My sincere thanks to Mr. Raub for his passion for history and his sincere interest in his students. Thanks to his family, too- teachers' kids have to share their parents with so many others; please know that we remember and appreciate.
