

Stephen Frederick Behnen

September 15, 1941 - January 8, 2026

Stephen Frederick Behnen (84) headed to heaven January 8th, 2026. Stephen was born on September 15th, 1941. He grew up in Greenwald and resided most of his life in Coon Rapids, MN. He is a man of excellent family values, a strong work ethic and a devout Catholic of Epiphany church. Stephen met many dear friends as a Teamster at Consolidated Freightways. He enjoyed travel, golf and volunteering his time - a true fan of the Gophers and the idea that the Vikings could win a Super Bowl. Steve was a wonderful dad. He is survived by two daughters by marriage and four grandsons, Alicia Torok (husband Terry) Sons Justice Christian Torok and Elijah Genesis Torok. Jami Moore (husband Matt) sons Mason Matthew Moore and Marshall Colin Moore. His wife Alice Behnen passed July of 2013, also a parishioner of Epiphany. Stephen is survived by his sister, Annette Jesh and brother Philip Behnen. Preceded in death by brother Toby Behnen, sister-in-law Roxanne Behnen, brother-in-law Harold Jesh. Many blessings to their parents who have passed, Henry and Leona Behnen. Visitation and Rosary, Wednesday, January 28, 9:30AM at Epiphany Catholic Church, 111th & Hanson Blvd NW, Coon Rapids. Mass to follow at 10:30AM. Donations in Stephen's name can be made to the Church of the Epiphany. We love you Steve and Alice, God Bless you.

“ I am so sorry to learn that Stephen has passed away. I met Stephen through another resident at Sunrise and have brought him Holy Communion every week for over two years. We always shared conversations from movie actors to stories of faith. Stephen made a lasting impression on me and to know him has been a gift. We shared many beautiful prayers for his family and loved ones who have gone before him. My condolences to Alicia and Jami, he talked of you often and how much he loved you both. May you rest in peace, Stephen, a good and faithful servant. ”
