“ It's been so long since I seen Stevie. Possibly more than 40 years. I remember growing up next door to the Kruegers and everytime I saw Stevie outside he had a baseball in his hand. I thought he was so cool. His commitment was amazing for such a young man. I thought forsure he'd be a big leaguer someday.

“ I have known Stevie for 35+ years, my heart goes out to Gina first, Art and Kathy were so nice to me growing up, Gary was my neighbor for a long time, became good friends, Sherri is a staple in the N.E. community I miss seeing her smile around the neighborhood. THE WHOLE FAMILY, I'M SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS, GINA KEEP YOUR HEAD UP, THAT'S WHAT HE WOULD OF WANTED! CRY HAPPY TEARS FOR THE TIME WE HAD WITH HIM! I had good times around Stevie, he was my friend and always will be! He turned me on to Poison way back in the day up at BJs in Clearwater, Nothing but a Good time... play it loud! This one's for him! Hugs to all of you. RIP KRU!
