“ Stephen was always one to come up and talk with me when the city had gatherings and always asked how my son was doing that worked on the city crews one summer. He felt bad because my son was hazed/harried so much by one of the senior crew members that he walked off the job. Stephen always told me how sorry he was that that took place.

Stephen was a good man in all my encounters with him over the years I never once had any regrets that I knew him.

Rest in peace Stephen
