“ Our first date we went to meet his parents which I wasn't so sure about. Steve loved his family, his friends and his cats. Our first apartment a scraggly old Tom cat came to our window and we started feeding him. Then I brought home a cat that was supposed to go the neighbor but became Steve's buddy and never left. He loved to cook and was a master at the grill. He loved his friends Ray, Randy, Chris. In the end we were better friends than spouse's and still had affection for each other. I was able to keep my promise and Lucy and Percy are in a great home. I still grab the phone to text. I'll miss you Kappel.
