

Steven S. Rhoe

April 27, 2018

Rhoe, Steven S. Age 69. The world lost a beloved husband, son, brother, uncle, best friend and Army Veteran on Friday, April 27, 2018. Preceded in death by father, Stewart Rhoe & brother-in-law, Pete Beneke. Survived by his loving wife of 30 years, Molly; mother, Pat; sisters Mary Beneke & Robin Crisp (Gary); nieces; Amy Lewis (Bill), Erin Ramsey (Casey), Sarah Osterloh (Ricky); nephews; Chad Kamholz (Sara), Chris Foley (Jessamyn and Tristan); 4 grand-nieces, 4 grand- nephews; best friend, Gary Hermes. Steven was born in Minneapolis, MN, graduated from Cooper H.S. in 1966 where he lettered in track; attended St. Cloud State & entered the Army in 1969, serving in Vietnam as a Medical Corpsman from 1969-71. He worked at HCMC in Microbiology / Immunology for over 40 years and retired in 2015. Steve was a gentle, kind hearted man who deeply loved his family and treasured his friendships. It was easy to love him. He fought a courageous battle against lymphoma for the past 16 months and never gave up. He was a world traveler, an avid reader, photographer, trivia buff and loved music (rock-n- roll, jazz & blues); he loved all sports & subscribed to every cable sports station (loved ESPN). He shared a love of the MN Twins with his mother-in-law, Margaret, and was recently seen on WCCO stating he would wear a crazy TC logo suit "If the Twins win the World Series". We would like to thank our families, friends (special friend Jimmy McShane) and neighbors for their love, support and prayers; the Abbott NW Oncology Nurses/staff for their kindness, and loving care during his many hospitalizations and chemotherapy; Minnesota

Oncology Dr. Timothy Larson, his nurse Sarah & NPs Amy and Katie for never giving up on us. Dr. Jonathan Godsall (New Ulm, MN) for giving us hope when we needed it most. We are eternally grateful. "My heart is broken, for there will never be another you" Visitation at Washburn-McReavy, Col. Hts. Chapel on Friday, May 4, 2018 from 4-8:00pm (4101 Central Ave. NE, Columbia Heights, MN). Christian burial service, 11:00 am on Saturday, May 5, 2018, St. Anthony of Padua Chapel, (800 Main St. NE, Minneapolis, MN). Visitation 1 hour prior to service. Interment and luncheon to follow.
