“ Thinking of you, Sandy and all, as you gather to grieve, to remember the stories and to celebrate Steve's life. It sounds like he leaves a large legacy of love which will live on in many. Holding you close in thoughts and prayer now and as you adjust to life on this side of eternity without him. Jane Samuelson

“ I was sad to hear of Steve's passing. We worked together at the Champlin Target, and I came to know him as a great man. He always had a smile on his face and had a wonderful sense of humor. After he didn't work with us anymore, I enjoyed seeing Sandy and him when they came in to shop. My prayers and thoughts are with Sandy and the rest of his family. Joyce Maurer

“ My deepest condolences to Steve's lovely wife and all his loved ones at this very difficult time. I too carry a very heavy heart and I am so sorry for their loss. I worked with Steve at the old Superior Products on County Rd D back in the 90's and we often encouraged one another in our faith and love for God, in Jesus. Everything Steve did was in a manner of excellence, worthy of all he believed in. He is kind, thoughtful and truly a good man. He walked out his faith in every area of his life; his smile and sense of humor always brought peace into a situation. He was a good teacher to those of us coming up in the restaurant equipment industry and in life in general. Thank you Steve - for all the support, training and mentorship you provided for so many. Surely your reward is very great as you stand before Our Great King, our Savior Jesus and behold His Glory. I'm pretty sure you're having a great laugh together about something - with a twinkle in your eye!

My family and I will keep Sandy and all Steve's family in prayer in the days ahead. God will bring comfort to you and He will carry you. Believe.
