

Suellyn B. "Sue" Seawell

February 7, 1934 - September 16, 2024

Suellyn B Seawell, 90 of Sauk Centre, MN passed away on September 16, 2024. Sue was born on February 7, 1934 in Willard / Celeryville, Ohio. She moved to Minnesota where she met her husband of 62 years, together they settled on the Northside of Minneapolis and later retired lakeside in Sauk Centre, MN.

Sue is survived by her daughter Victoria (ET) Nelson, of Saint Mary's Point; sons Richard (Tammey) Seawell, of Nowthen, and Robert (Lori) Seawell, of Andover; grandchildren, Laura (Scott) McFarlin, of Monticello, Tom Haynes, of Eagan, Gary Haynes Jr, of Lakeland, Meghan Seawell, of San Diego, CA, Kelly (James) Jaderborg, of Westminster MD, Nick (Brianna) Seawell, of Richfield, Matt (Tiffany) Seawell, of Oshkosh, WI, Samantha (Taylor Buchite) Seawell, of Otsego; great-grandchildren, Kailey, Clayton, Michael, Maria, Kennedy, Isabella, Amelia, Avery, Paisley, and Zoey, as well as other family and friends.

Preceded in death by her husband Thomas; son Mark Anthony; and grandson Brandon.

She was a life long employee of First National Bank working the night shift to help balance the family budget and finally becoming the first armed security guard. At the same time she managed to get children off to school and provide a welcoming home. She truly was a woman pioneer and a performer of parental miracles.

She had many unique experiences during her lifetime, serving as a community and school volunteer. She was a temporary foster mother for at-risk children, volunteer supporter of the Special Olympics, helped establish a school physical education program, which utilized the 'Go you chicken fat, go' song at Saint Anne's Catholic School in North Minneapolis, and was a 'Reading Grandmother' at Holy Family Catholic School in Sauk Centre, MN. She frequently put the needs of her family and others first.

Just for fun, she particularly enjoyed adventures with her girl friends especially if it involved hitting the open road with the convertible top down.

Most recently, she was finding great joy in her new community at Guardian Angles Riverview Landings in Otsego.

She was a spirit and prankster all her own, you never knew what she'd say or pull next.

Once someone loves you, they never really leave. She will live on in our memories and hearts forever.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday September 25 from 5-7 PM with memorial service at 7 PM at Washburn-McReavy Coon Rapids Chapel, 1827 Coon Rapids Blvd NW, Coon Rapids. Inurnment St. Anthony Cemetery, Minneapolis.

“ I'll never forget you Sue. You brought such joy to my grandma, you were the only one that was always around for her. I remember you showing up to the house with your gorgeous convertible, top down and two golden retrievers in the backseat just waiting to lick my grandma's ears when she got in the car. That part always made me giggle. She loved you and my family loved you too You always had a special place in our hearts. I always enjoyed when I got to tagalong, you always showed me that being old doesn't mean you have to stop having fun 🥰 they would go on adventures such as the time when they got locked in at Crystal Lake cemetery for being there too late. Rest in peace you were in amazing lady, and they won't forget you
