“ Ahead of Wednesday's service for Susan, my condolences to the family. I will miss the contributions Susan made to League of Women Voters, where I took her place on the metro-wide Council of Metropolitan Area Leagues. But, I also recognize Susan's years of service as an elected and appointed official in our broad community.

“ Dear Tom, Joe, and Sharon,
Please accept my sympathy on the death of your mother.
Susan, was a lovely friend, and I'm sure she has a special place in heaven where your dad, Leo, has eagerly welcomed her.

Love and blessings,

“ Susan you are such a strong lady that Jesus will have his work cut out for Him with you in his realm. You had such a love for st Katharine Drexel church and was one of the first to volunteer costumes and decorations for our events. You will make heaven even more beautiful. RIP dear Susan and sympathies to your family. Your neighbors , Wayne and Viv Jeffrey
