“ We met Sue and Barry as neighbors in 1976 in Edina, and easily made friends. We shared many holiday meals, State Fair visits and concerts. We will miss them. -- Barbara & Michael Byrne

“ I was saddened to hear Sue had passed away. Sue and I met in the mid 70's when we taught together at Rochester John Marshall. She and Barry have been great friends since that time, with all of us moving to the Mpls area. Our now adult children remember how much interest Barry and Sue took in their lives and what fun and laughter B and S shared with our family. Our long memories of Barry and Sue define what “friendship” should be.

“ Barry and Susan were neighbors and friends of my parents, Charles and Beverly Anders, in Northfield when Barry and my father were on the St. Olaf faculty. We all loved Susan's wide-ranging passions and irrepressible joy for life. She was a deeply empathetic and loving soul, clearly enrich by her struggles. She is certainly sharing that joy with Barry now. —
