

Susan Elizabeth (Cain) Hanson

February 27, 2018

Hanson, Susan Elizabeth (Cain) age 87, of Bloomington, passed away on February 27, 2018. Sue was born in Evansville, Wisconsin. She attended the University of Wisconsin as a young woman and later graduated from the University of Minnesota with a degree in home economics. She worked as a substitute teacher and started a business importing fabric and marketing sewing kits for the traditional Norwegian work shirt called busserull. She was active at St. Stephen Lutheran Church and several Norwegian-American organizations. She was a wonderful hostess, cook and baker (famous for her delicious pies) and an accomplished seamstress. She enjoyed travel, genealogy research and golfing with her friends. She was preceded in death by Borg, her husband of 69 years; her infant granddaughter Kari; her parents Calvert and Amanda Cain; and stepmother Lydia Cain. She is survived by her sons Greg (Mary) and Eric (Faith Adams), and daughter Chris (Eric Olson); grandchildren Emily, Anders (Katie Terhune), Evan, Kai, Madeline and Kira; and her sister Judy Gaarder (Russ). The funeral will be held at St. Stephen Lutheran Church, 8400 France Ave. S., Bloomington, at 11:00 AM on Tuesday, March 6, with visitation at 10:00 AM. A reception will follow the service. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to St. Stephen Lutheran Church, Bloomington. Washburn-McReavy.com Werness Brothers 952-884-8145
