Susan Louise Lalim, of Nowthen, MN, was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She passed away suddenly on March 2, 2021 at the age of 66.

Sue was born on July 4, 1954 in St. Paul, MN to Edward and Betty (Proulx) Cole. Sue was preceded in death by her father, Edward Cole and her brother-in-law, Bert Wilson. She is survived by her husband, Richard Lalim, her five children, Gerry (Holly) Saba, Brian (Julie) Saba, Nikki (Greg) Sanders, Shawn (Brandi) Saba, Katie (Mark) Olson, 13 grandchildren, 5 great-grandchildren, mother, Betty Cole, sisters, Kathy Wilson and Chantell (Ron) Butterworth, brothers, Tim Cole and Michael Cole, and many nieces and nephews.

Sue graduated from Harding High School in St. Paul and went on to work in the grocery industry for 35 years before retiring in 2012. She loved gardening, going on trips with her girlfriends, traveling with her husband, and hosting big holiday gatherings with family and friends. She also enjoyed the many horses her and Richard had on their hobby farm.

Sue had an extra special place in her heart for grandchildren. She loved making each of them feel special in their own ways, whether it be spending time in the pool, going for a bike ride, taking them camping, going golfing, or cheering them on at their various sporting events.

Sue was a very special woman who left a positive impact on everyone she met. She will be missed dearly.
