“ Merry Christmas and Happy New Year 2023
Angel,

Well another year has gone by, been 3 years, seems like yesterday and also seems like a life time ago, miss you very much, but it's been great hearing and sensing you throughout the year. The best one I liked was at the renaissance festival being pulled over to the wind chimes and which one to get, you always did go for the most expensive ones... that was good, I liked that, didn't buy it though, couldn't afford $400. on a wind chime. Had a great birthday, went out with girl's, they surprised me with a Peacock waterfall fountain that I put down on the landing behind the front door, very pretty and sound wonderful with the water flowing. Snow fell the week after my birthday had about an inch and so far a lot of nuisance snowfalls throughout this season a couple weeks straight with a little break in between them. Thanksgiving we all went over to Tim's brother John's new house, had a wonderful time. Did manage to get a lot of the downstairs cleaned up, took a lot of the household items over to Habitat For Humanity and the Bridging Company, nice to finally get that crap of my parents to new homes and to see out the windows down there, still have some to go but a good feeling to get it cleaned up.

December had it challenges with the snow and extreme subzero temperatures, getting out at 6am shoveling off the driveway every other week straight for a month. Went on vacation on the 21st til Jan 3rd, stayed home, put up your tree, no ornaments just lights, just didn't have the Christmas spirit this year. My brother Jim passed on the 23rd and your passing on top of it, plus my annual sinus issues made for interesting time. Did connect with you the night of the 22nd, thank you for that, needed it, Thank you, Love you.

“ Danielle took me to the Tran-Siberian Orchestra on the 23rd, for my xmas present, it was Great had a wonderful time at the Xcel Center, sure brightened my day. Christmas eve we all went over to Dani house, Hannah and Bria where on home, good to see Hannah, she's back in Arizona now has her two dogs with her and I think she feels at home now, doing good. Mabel and I opened our xmas presents, she loved her puppy treats and bone, I got some treats and gift cards from the neighbors then Dani and I went over to Brian's on the 25th, told Gail you loved her, she says she talked with you a couple weeks back in her dreams and was very uplifted by it and says thank you, I hear also you been coming to Christian a lot and visiting him often, hearing all that just makes my heart sing with joy and so sweet and blissful. Received a xmas card form Bonita, she tells me, you and Duane visited with her around the 23rd also but woke up to soon to remember what you all talked about, but was very grateful for the visit. On the 30th Dani and I went out to a dinner theater at Majestic Oaks, had a goodtime it was her first time and like you Won the story ... took all the clues and guest who was the murderer, daughter like mother, very proud of her, brought back a lot of memories. All in all, it was a nice Christmas Holiday season. Well the year has come to an end, went to Target on the 2nd to run errands and pickup odds and ends as I walked in the door noticed that they had Valentines Day Cards out and was strong drawn to a card, glanced at it, didn't fully read it and bought it, I take it as this year card is from both of us to each other, looking forward to VDay to see what it says. All for now, I'll talk to you later; Love you and thank you so very much.

“ Hi Angel,

HAPPY 27th ANNIVERSARY

Rain and 70 we needed the rain been kinda of dry out, last night was clear with a full Moon, today and this evening scattered showers like on our Wedding Day a little more rain this time. Went to Clive's in Champlin with the girls, Micheal, Tim and the kids, Dani and I. We taught Tim about Appetizer dinner new experience for him, say's he had fun. The Perseus Meteor Shower was going on @ 3 – 4am, neither Micheal or I could see it, it was to cloudy here and Pine City, all in all great time with family, realized starting to go hard of hearing. Jim had fun with that when I told him. Saturday went to the Bell Museum, spent about 3 hrs. their hadn't been there in yrs. I think the last time was with you, can't fully remember, things starting to blur together. It was a great time mainly just wanted to get away for awhile and leave this Planet and go site seeing the Cosmos, got a couple nice pictures. Went to this site called Aurapalooza on my quest for greater spiritual awareness but it was no longer there was under renovation construction so my search continues on. Did have an epiphany that night about you --- later. Went to Stella's and picked up 2 crème brulee deserts, had a hiccup with a wait and sitting at a table while waiting for my take out order, Yes, I did hear you where to get it, the place has changed, atmosphere different, won't ever go back there. Then culver's for a mushroom and swiss burger and one of the deserts, and feed Mabel's.*

“ I figured out how you were talking with the other side, was listening to a podcast on opening the 3rd eye. The supplements you were taking – Magnesium, Calcium and Iodine – it makes the Pineal Gland more active, that's how you could do it?

Sunday caught up on chores, went to Applebee's for an early dinner, came home, feed Mabel's and got ready for work, then had the other desert and wrote this letter. Had a very nice Anniversary weekend. Hope you had a chance to see your flowers and card, your card is the one on the wall Souls together.

About the same old same old since the last time I talked with you, with the dry weather haven't had many mosquito's at night, I can leave the screen door open when grilling, been nice, reminds me of when we were traveling in Europe. Work, Chores, Dinners for Mabel and I and Sleep same old same old. Danielle had us try this Grill Hall place – write home about this place, that's where I was going to get our desert until I heard go to Stella's and get it. Going on Vacation at the end of the month, sticking around just don't want to be on the road, need to get some things done around here. All for now. I Love You very much, will talk to you later.

“ Hi Angel,

Happy Birthday, Happy Easter and Happy Mother's Day,

All this happened within a month started with your Birthday (8) We all went out to Gabe's in St. Paul, had one of the best all you can eat fish fries both Danielle and Micheal agree, Brat and Munchkin had a delicious Mac and Cheese dish, topping it off splitting donut holes and we all blow out the candle....Most Excellent night to spend your birthday. Hope you had a chance to view your card and rose. Then Saturday, Micheal, Abb's and me went to a Paranormal Art Exhibit at the Mpls. Inst. of Arts (MIA) nice exhibit, a couple of them very disturbing, dark and lonely places, others very beautiful, playful and others were out there, heavy presence at one – hard to explain, put my shield up to block it. Palm Sunday went to Church, lit a candle for you and my dad, nice service, said hi to Pastor Val she doing well then came home and cleaned the house – it never ends.

The next weekend went shopping for new bed sheets – 3 sets, should last a few yrs. about then would be time for a new bed.....too far away to think about. Was down to only one, stripping, washing, making, had enough, time to stock up so they would last and not get thin.

“ Easter weekend worked Saturday, Sunday, on call, went to Church, got into the car hadn't left the parking lot and the phone beeps. Nice surprise from Micheal, that I was headed to for Easter Brunch, Text Happy Easter emoji, that lifted my spirits thought I had to go to work. Had eggs, bacon, pancakes Got there late everybody was just finishing up.... Had to go to Church, missed it last yr due to work, made it this yr. Easter this year had a few special Events happen Passover, Easter and Ramadan all simultaneously in a rare conjunction with 3 major holidays of Judaism, Christianity and Islam at the same time this year.

Then on April 25th and 26th a celestial event: Jupiter, Venus, Mars and Saturn all align in a straight line.

Micheal and I did the artist crawl the next weekend. She made a small glass ball with multi colored horns, turned out nice, ball kind of crackled when it cooled, stilled turned out nice, first thoughts looked questionable as to what she was making, ha, ha, LoL Had a good visit with same classmates.

Mothers Day we all went over to Micheal's for Sophia's birthday party, pizza, presents and a sleepover, she had a Great time. Acquired a $1. and a $5. Silver Certificate gave Dimps the $1. and Micheal the $5. for their birthdays and see if they can hang onto it till they retire --- who knows what the value will be at that time, should be both the same when they cash it in. Hope you had a chance to see your card, I sure did enjoy dancing with you here in there throughout the years, have very fond memories, thank you.

“ Micheal’s birthday she took a rain check on, was busy doing other things with her family. That night she had also a celestial event happen: a Full Total Lunar Eclipse also known as the Blood Moon and it did turn red during the full block out that was nice to see.

Here it is now it Memorial Day weekend and I need to finish this letter, had to work Saturday and Sunday, Monday off, got my chores done and unwind, did start cleaning up the downstairs. Taking a few boxes over to the Bridging Comm. Serv. See what they will take and not, at least I started getting my Mothers crap out of here, nice feeling and speaking of feeling. Mabel and I felt you here today, she looked up at your Urn, laid outside by the foot of your chair on the deck as thou you were sitting there and at the foot of the bed throughout the day, I also felt you throughout the day, thank you for visiting, much appreciated, I Love You Always. Been a little busy lately, Hot and Muggy and Raining this weekend broke down and turned the air on, during the week the week suppose to cool in the 70’s going to get the yard work started for the season, mow, trim the bushes and hopefully have a bonfire and get the woodpile cleaned up before the next rainfall. That’s all for now, talk with you later, come visit when you can.

“ Dearest Angel,

Happy Valentine's Day!!

Wha'ch ya been up ta? Been pretty cold and windy here for about the last month and half, roller coaster of temperatures -30 deg's – 45 deg's with very high winds making driving conditions intense. With the snow, blowing snow, trying to stay on the road, icy, black ice and mainly other drivers – the speeding that's going on is unreal lately and they're mean about it on top of it, enough about that.

Last weekend, Dani (bonehead) took me and her out to an Immersive Van Gogh exhibit – Christmas present. It was very amazing and spectacular of how they made his work come alive, it was an awesome showing! Then we had diner afterwards, went to Saran's, very nice place, good food and ambience with excellent company, most excellent day! Hiccup pulling into the show and parking, hence the name, one of these days she may live down her name, I have hopes for her though – someday – but that's what makes her - her. Munchkin doing well in school and is adjusting to the changing conditions with Covid. Sport doing good (proud of her), growing up to be quite the adventurous – travel, theatre's, with a little ballet mixed in, culture and party 'in – (Manhattan and the Subway's).

Micheal and Tim are doing good everybody's well; they all got over there Christmas Covid without any real issues, which was good. All the kids are doing fine and well, wait for Spring and school to be here and done. All in all, same old same old, nothing to new. I try to get her to write to you here and there, I know she talks to you, which is good.

Mabel's and I are hanging in there, kinda waiting for it to get warm out so we can stay outside and enjoy the day. I really want to tell you how grateful I am for you and I Love you so very much! Thank you from the depths of my sole, thank you.

Have an awesome Valentine's Day My Love!!!!!!

“ Merry Christmas and Happy New Year Angel,

2nd attempt to post this letter.

Hi Angel,

Another year come and gone, don't know why the other letter don't upload and stay but as I start this one (2nd) really stuck out, I wonder why! anyways, don't have much in the mood this year.

Didn't put out any blowups, did put your tree up – thought it needed lights from last xmas so I picked up some LED ones – was wrong, had fixed it before I put it away. No ornaments, the Nooms, a Deer. Cards similar again – don't know this time if you did or not. Just different this year.

Christmas Eve Mabel and Me went over to Danielle's – Hannah and Bria came home, early brunch, games, dinner, number tree game and present, had a real good time, nice having Mabel's with, wanted to bring your urn but pasted, did sense you there briefly a couple of times, thank you for popping in, very grateful. Micheal, Tim, Nathan and Sophi, Ben at moms, Abby with Dad and Chuck we all had a great time. Micheal's family tried to give us all Covid (LOL) unknowingly, just stayed mainly to in her family, Hannah also caught it, not too bad, ok, Micheal and the rest doing so so, flu style so far, don't want it to get any worse. She loved her onezes, told her it was from you – did hear you. Speaking of that Bonita and Gail very much loved your message in the Christmas cards I sent out.

Well my year break is done, back to reality, did have 1 hiccup went to closeout your account and give the girl's the balance, they lost all the paperwork – had to go through the boxes (Wasn't ready to revisit THAT) for some forms and closed it. Was, all in all a nice break from the BS! now it time to get my PARENTS crap out of here and get the downstairs cleaned up, not fully ready to sort and ornaments yet, straighten up, get it back to before all the BS of 2012 started (Flight 2022 Instructions) learning. Trying to start a social life, find friends to hang out with, got on Match. What a joke, I'm better off going to the senior ctr. or church groups or community field trips, would need available time for that. Having a hard time with it (better than before – so wrong!) I do understand thou I have a life to live out don't let it pass you by, only hurting yourself, need to share love, joy, life in all aspects that's where the instructions post came from, fitting for what I have to get back into and done.

Tried connecting with you on your Angel Anniversary (Micheal's idea) poor connection, tried a couple days later connected not as strong thou, very grateful for that and so many thank you to you, I Love You! Have noticed only voices lately, is that why (above) that's coming through strongly? Anyway, going to see a medium, have 100+'s, let's see what happens, I will ask you graciously to connect with me, always, thank you Most defiantly learned a lot, thank you, thank you, thank you. Mainly it confirmed many things. I love you my friend.

“ Flight 2022 Instructions:

Good morning and welcome to Flight 2022.

We are prepared to take off into the New Year.

Please make sure your Positive Attitude and Gratitude are secured and locked in the upright position. All self-destructive devices: pity, anger, selfishness, pride and resentment should be turned off and stowed away at this time. All negativity, hurt and discouragement should also be put away at this time.

Should you lose your Positive Attitude under pressure during this flight, reach up and pull down a prayer. Prayers will automatically activated by Faith. Once your Faith is activated, you can assist other passengers who are of little faith.

There will be NO BAGGAGE allowed on this flight.

God, our Captain, has cleared us for Take-off.

Destination - Greatness!

Wishing you a New Year filled with new HOPE, new JOY and new BEGINNINGS!

Stay Blessed!

And welcome in 2022!

I had to share this with you, this is my GOAL!

Along with getting the house cleaned up, declutter and downsize things you can't take it with. Ran across this in a post. Best way I know to move forward and live.

I Love You Suz,

Talk to you later.

Always and Forever,

“ Happy Anniversary Angel,

Not going to write much today. Took today and tomorrow off to get some things done.

Saw an Attorney today with Danielle to get my Will setup, trying to have it so they all get some kind of inheritance that no one can take away from them. MA is the main issue. That's all I am going to say about that, they get you one way or other.

Received my first COVID shot today, that's my main gift to you today, cause I know you would be on my case about getting it, so I did. Also got you a card and rose with a frog like stuffed animal holding a heart shape smiley face. Latter tonight when I get back from Thirsty Thursday I will open it and read it to you, looking forward to see what card you picked out - I heard the one on top so that's the one I grab, just turned it over to make sure it was an anniversary card - haven't opened yet to read at this time, except in the past.

Mabel is doing well along with everyone else. Same old same old. Not sure what I am doing for dinner today. Was going to go get something from Olive garden but changed my mind since I am going up to Zeke's tonight.

Next weekend going to see a medium, hopefully will be able to talk to you better than the yes no questions - see what happens, hope you come. Either way looking forward to it, should be very enlightening. Still trying to get your tribute posted on here, just can't do it yet without breaking down. Same goes for going through your things and cleaning that up, know I have to, just not ready to do that at this time. Miss you!

All for now.

“ My Love, Angel,

Happy Silver Anniversary, My Dearest Suz,

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you, so very much for waking me up this morning and telling me Happy Anniversary, I heard you, Thank you this means so very much to me.

Hope you like your roses (assorted colors-red, white lite green, lite orange red edges) and card. Couldn't find your card right away, when I did we picked the the some type of wording about our wonderful life we have made with each other. I picked yours out a couple months ago, the connection and bond we have is very strong.

I'm seeing - sensing you in your early 20's full of vibrancy, free. You are such a beautiful and precious Soul ----- I'm in love with you so deeply, with my very being. Words can not describe what I have (feel) for you, the bond we share

By the way, I heard you Saturday, when I was tearing the bed apart to do wash and I put your walker in door to keep Mabel off the bed. I know you don't need that, put it away. Micheal also heard you when she brought Mabel's blankets back --- take that down (something like that) very strong, comment was: gees Mom.

Danielle was very happy you came and wished her a Happy Birthday. She very much appreciated seeing you.

I'm going out to dinner with the girl's, just don't want to be alone tonight, need to share this day with family.

Always and Forever,
Eternally Yours Forever,*

“ Hi Suz's

Thanks for coming to see me and being around me. Whispering in my thoughts and prayers, but most of all in my dreams. What I really like the most is when you come to me in my dreams, you are at different stages of your life. I have seen you looking young, to when you passed, and all in between, it's almost like living a full life together, and this is so very precious to me. You are such a beautiful and wonderful soul (spirit). When you gave me that hug, I could feel it hugging my spirit (soul) it was such a profound experience, and then poking me another time hearing you say "look what I can do now". All of these have brought such joy to me, and has brightened up my spirits which has helped ease the immense pain on my soul of your physical absence. I go into a state of euphoria for at least 24 hours, and best of all, I can remember it. When I recall them, it brings a great big smile to my being, especially when feeling down and depressed, you brighten up the mood.

What can I do to help you they way you have helped me? I have also been praying to the lord to help you release any and all burdens you my still have that were carried with you into the spiritual after life. Please let me know Angel what can I do, come to my dreams and tell me. I will do anything you need, except I will never let you go. Our bond we have for each other is every strong and has lasted through many lives together, on both sides of the spiritual, and physical plains. You are my best friend and I will always be there for you. I just couldn't be there to watch you die again, I would have tried to stop you from going and I knew I couldn't cause that's what you wanted, to be released from the pain and suffering. Let me know how I can help you on this side.

I learned that when we would gaze deeply into each other's eyes, deep into our souls, we would see our past lives together and getting that intense emotional feeling. There is a word for that, it is called Opia. It is a bleed through of our strong bond we have for each other, and how we are connected eternally. So many different coincidences in each of our lives that we went through that finally brought us together, and reunited us as one, and now what we are able to do (extraordinary). We are definitely mates, right now our connection (tether) is stretched between two forms of reality. I don't ever want to brake it.

I have been trying to get your funeral put on your memorial web page, the pictures, video of the service and a letter I wrote you (still adding and changing some things with it). Every time I start or get things ready to do it, I just start breakdown again and again. I will get it done and posted for you. Right now it's pretty hard to do (emotionally), I know it's part of the healing and the grief process to get it done, and I want to get it done for you. Danielle and Michealanne did a wonderful tribute to your life, you would be so proud of them, as I am very proud of them for what they did in a very difficult time of your passing. I know you saw it, and were there.

I love you my friend always.

Your beloved,

So much I would like to say, the most important one is: I Love You and you are in my thoughts and prays every day. Even though you have been reborn into the hands of God's kingdom, know that many souls here send there love and prays to you each and every day. Thank you for giving us the the love, strength, comfort and guidance that you send all of us, in all the ways you can, I do see it - the signs are there.

Went to church this morning, had to go online for the service, this is different, due to COVID - 19 virus, very much miss receiving communion and being in his Holy Temple for worship, it was the best I could do, I really need his spiritual guidance, it has been helping and he has strength my faith, thou it not the same.

Today we're getting together at Michael's for Easter Dinner, suppose to snow all day, they say were going to get 2 - 4 inches. The spring flowers are coming up in your gardens and are very beautiful, even though you are not physically here, you are. You are and always have been a beautiful Sole and I cherish this each and every day,

*Love Always and Forever,
Eternally yours,
Leibchen*

“ Happy Birthday, Angel

I love you

We're having dinner over at Dani's. Michael, Tim and the girl's are bringing bbq'ed cheese burgers, you and me are bringing the been's, potato salad, coleslaw and veggies for the burgers and Michael made you cake. Ho, last night was the Super Moon it was Pinkish/Yellow and very big and bright, my pictures didn't do it justice of how beautiful it was when it came up. went out a hour later and it was cloudy thou bright through the clouds.

*Love Always & Forever
Eternally Yours
