

Tamra Diane Acciari

November 24, 1960 - May 11, 2020

Tamra “Tami” (Lemon) Acciari, age 59 of Isanti, MN left this world on Monday May 11, 2020 after a very short battle with Cancer.

She leaves behind her husband, Donald Acciari; daughter, Samantha Lemon; son, William “Billy” Acciari; grandson, Tanner Urban; brothers, Tim (Carol) Lemon, Tom Lemon, Terry Lemon; sister, Tracy (Duane) Acciari; niece and nephews, Jeff, Jessica, Jeremiah, and Josh Lemon; along with great-nieces and nephews.

Tami was born November 24, 1960 in Coon Rapids, MN to Gerald and Diane (Anderson) Lemon. She was the younger sister to Tim and the older sister to Tom, Terry, and Tracy. She graduated from Coon Rapids High School in 1979. Then in 1987, Tami became a single mother to Samantha. She had the help of her parents and siblings to raise her daughter. In 1993, Tami met Donald, and they added one more child, a son, Billy in 1994. Tami and Donald were married in 2006.

Tami spent many years as a homemaker, taking care of and raising her family. In her free time she enjoyed sewing and crocheting blankets for family members and the family reunions. She also enjoyed working on puzzles, baking (which she got from her mother), collecting porcelain dolls, and spoiling her grandson, Tanner.

A visitation for family and friends will be held Saturday, September 12, 2020 from 12 PM to 1 PM at Washburn-McReavy Coon Rapids Chapel, 1827 Coon Rapids Blvd., Coon Rapids, MN, chapel capacity is limited to 50 individuals at one time, and all attendees are required to wear a mask while inside the chapel. A private funeral service for family will follow the visitation with a private burial at Morningside Memorial Gardens in Coon Rapids, MN. We ask friends and family to reconvene at our home in Isanti, MN for a celebration of life following the service. For any friends who want to view the funeral service, it will be streamed on her page at washburn-mcreavy.com. Washburn-McReavy Coon Rapids Chapel, 763-767-1000.
