“ I did not know Tanya as well as the rest of my family, but I knew she was a loving person with a kind heart. Every time I saw Tanya she had a smile for you and beautiful eyes. She gave me a recipe last year at a party at Gordy and Patti's that I have made almost every day sense. I will always remember that. Tony and children, I am so very sorry for the loss of your wife and mother. God Bless you all. There is one more Angel looking over us. Sonja Kennedy and Kathy Maloney

“ I will always remember Tanya as a joyful spirit who only shared kindness with others. She will be remembered by all the individuals who's lives she touched and through our memories she will continue to live.
Our thoughts, prayers, and love are with you all!
