

Tarika S. Mehta

February 21, 2014

Mehta, Tarika S. age 37, a resident of Mpls., MN, passed away Friday, February 21st, 2014 after a long, courageous battle with cancer. Always chasing her dreams, after obtaining a B.A. degree in Economics from McGill University in Montreal, she moved to New York City to pursue a second one. Graduating Summa Cum Laude from F.I.T. with a degree in textiles and marketing, Tarika held a number of positions of increasing responsibility at Jones NY. Recruited by Target Corp. in 2007 as a Product Development Manager, she found her professional home which was a catalyst for tremendous career growth and satisfaction working with so many talented and well meaning colleagues. Her greatest source of pride, however, was doting on her husband Vincent, her dog Lola and her many nieces and nephews. She'll be remembered by those who knew & loved her for her charm, wit, toughness and infectious, bubbly personality. She is survived by her husband Vince, her mother Daljit, her father Terry, her brother Sagar and her nieces/nephews Rayhana, Max, Annabelle, Nicole and Sebastein. A memorial service will be held at Lakewood Cemetery Memorial Chapel, 3600 Hennepin Avenue South, on Friday, February 28th at noon. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to University of Minnesota Medical Foundation for further dedication to Amplatz Children's Hospital Research Funds, McNamara Alumni Center, 200 Oak Street SE, Suite 500, Minneapolis, MN 55455-2010, (612) 624-3333.
